

“Love Asia Concert in Chongqing, Chengdu, Shanghai”

The Sichuan Big Earthquake Charity Concert

～Sichuan province Kindergarten/Elementary School Construction Project～

As an idea of Japanese Rock band “GYPSY QUEEN”, in November 2008 in Beijing, and in November 2009 in Suzhou and Shanghai, we had the charity concerts for the Sichuan big earthquake. These concerts were approved and many Chinese audiences have donated at the venue. And this year we'll also have the concerts based on this project.

The artists participating in this project would like to promote the friendship between China and Japan through music, and continue to support victims without forgetting tragedy of Sichuan big earthquake forever.

Because these concerts are not for profit, but for support for victims, we have the admission-free concerts, and donate all funds we receive to “Sichuan province Kindergarten/Elementary School Construction Project”.

We aim to make a concert unites the heart of Japanese and Chinese artists. The Japanese major artist, “KABUKI STARS” sympathize this project and appear with the host band “GYPSY QUEEN”. And Chinese local artists in Chongqing and Chengdu will also appear.
